Introduction

Teaching learning and teaching methodology have to be adapted such that the teacher does not lose the attention of a single student. Each student has different levels of learning, attitudes and ability. The report gives insights of the identification and development of significant strategies and processes that have been implemented to benefit both Slow and Advanced Learners. Vivekananda College is one of the reputed institutions of the Alipurduar district in West Bengal. Many students come to the institution to pursue higher education, but the intellectual quality of the students is not equal. Some of the students are unable to understand a topic thought by teacher while IQ of few students are very high. Therefore, department separate the slow and advanced learners in every session to help the students cope-up with new learning environment. A number of measures are taken by the Department of History, such as academic counseling, motivational talk, tutorial and extra classes etc. Vivekananda College has Parent Teacher and Mentor Mentee Cell. Parents and teachers simultaneously interact with the students to guide them and know their personal needs and aspirations. This helps to identify the slow learners and the advanced learners from each batch of each year.

Objective

The objective of identifying learning levels of the students is to identify the factors affecting the students' performance and analyze them with respect to the institutional framework. It also aimed to provide a proper positive solution for improving their performance and help them to build a successful career. The slow and advanced learners program provides a desirable and amicable solution for the slow as well as advanced learners without any discriminations between them.

Strategies to Identify Slow and Advanced Learners

Advanced and slow learners have been identified mainly based on the three-criterion mentioned above. The Department of History identified slow and advanced learner on the basis of following parameters.

1. Previous year University Examination result.
2. Result of Internal Assessment.
3. Interactions in the class.
4. Performance of the Class Test.
5. Performance in different Departmental Activities.

Identification and Action Taken for Slow and Advanced Learner

Department of History

Identification of Slow and Advanced Learner:

Slow Learners: These students typically perform below average, struggle with grasping concepts, and require additional time and support. Indicators include low academic performance, difficulty in classroom participation, and slower task completion compared to peers.

Advanced Learners: These students excel academically, often exceed the curriculum, and demonstrate a deep understanding of subjects. They show active participation, leadership in discussions, and seek further challenges beyond the syllabus.

Action Taken for Slow Learners:

1. Extra Tutorial Classes: Organizing additional classes to provide personalized attention, clarify doubts, and help slow learners understand concepts at their own pace.
2. Study Materials: Providing supplementary study resources, such as worksheets, visual aids, and practice exercises, to reinforce learning.
3. Relevant Books: Offering extra books or materials that simplify complex topics, allowing students to progress at a comfortable speed.
4. Motivational Classes: Conducting sessions to boost self-confidence, encourage persistence, and help slow learners stay motivated in their studies.

Action Taken for Advanced Learners:

1. Seminars: Organizing subject-specific seminars where advanced learners can explore in-depth topics, exchange ideas, and learn from experts.
2. Extra Reference Books: Providing access to advanced reference books and resources to deepen their understanding and stimulate further academic interest.

3. Journals: Introducing academic journals and research papers to encourage critical thinking, independent research, and knowledge expansion.
4. Motivational Seminars: Inviting motivational speakers or arranging seminars that inspire advanced learners to push their limits and pursue higher academic and personal goals.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH
REPORT ON SLOW-ADVANCED LEARNERS
SESSION—2023-2024

Teaching learning and teaching methodology have to be adapted so that the teacher does not lose the attention of a single student. Each student has different levels of learning attitudes and ability. The report gives insights of the identification and development of significant strategies and process that has been implemented to benefit both Slow and Advance Learners of the Fifth semester of the Department of English. Vivekananda College is one of the prime institutions of this Panchayet locality that teach students with utmost care. Many students from the backward class and the subsided community come to the institution to pursue higher education. But the intellectual quality of the students is not equal. Some of the students are unable to understand a topic thought by teacher while IQ of few students is very high. Therefore, departments separate the slow and advance learners in every session to help the students cope with new learning environment. A number of measures are taken by departments, such as academic counseling, motivational talk, special lectures, remedial class etc. Vivekananda College Alipurduar has separate Slow-Advance learner cell, Parent Teacher Association and Mentor Mentee system. Teachers and students simultaneously interact with the slow learners to guide them and know their personal needs and aspirations. This helps to identify the slow learners and the advanced learners from each batch of each Semester. The objective of identifying learning levels of the students is to identify the factors affecting the student's performance and analyze them with respect to the institutional framework and help them with amicable ideas. It also aimed to provide a proper positive solution for improving their performance and help them to build a successful career. The slow and advance learners program provides a desirable and amicable solution for the slow as well as advance learners without any discrimination between them.

Report of slow and advanced learner

6th semester

Session 2023-2024

After the scrutiny of the result of 5th semester it was found that almost everyone has improved their results in 5th semester than 4th semester. Only Arti Rava and Sandipa Debnath scored worse result than previous result. Special attention is given to them by taking extra classes and supplying study material. ## Introduction

Teaching learning and teaching methodology have to be adapted such that the teacher does not lose the attention of a single student. Each student has different levels of learning attitudes and ability. The report gives insights of the identification and development of significant strategies and process that has been implemented to benefit both Slow and Advance Learners. Vivekananda College is one of the reputed institutions of Alipurduar district in West Bengal. Many students come to the institution to pursue higher education. But the intellectual quality of the students is not equal. Some of the students are unable to understand a topic thought by teacher while IQ of few students are very high. Therefore department separate the slow and advance learners in every session to help the students cope up with new learning environment. A number of measures are taken by department of political science, such as academic counseling, motivational talk, tutorial and extra classes etc. Vivekananda College has Parent Teacher and Mentor Mentee cell. Parents and teachers simultaneously interact with the students to guide them and know their personal needs and aspirations. This helps to identify the slow learners and the advanced learners from each batch of each year.

Objective

The objective of identifying learning levels of the students is to identify the factors affecting the student's performance and analyze them with respect to the institutional framework. It also aimed to provide a proper positive solution for improving their performance and help them to build a successful career. The slow and advance learners program provides a desirable and amicable solution for the slow as well as advance learners without any discrimination between them.

Strategies to identify slow and advanced learners

Advanced and slow learners have been identified mainly based on the three criteria mentioned above. The department of political science identified slow and advanced learner on the basis of following parameter.

- 1) Previous year University examination result
- 2) Result of internal assessment.
- 3) interaction in the class
- 4) Performance of the class test.
- 5) Performance in different departmental Activities

Identification of Slow and Advanced Learner:

Slow Learners: These students typically perform below average, struggle with grasping concepts, and require additional time and support. Indicators include low academic performance, difficulty in classroom participation, and slower task completion compared to peers.

Advanced Learners: These students excel academically, often exceed the curriculum, and demonstrate a deep understanding of subjects. They show active participation, leadership in discussions, and seek further challenges beyond the syllabus.

Action Taken for Slow Learners:

1. Extra Tutorial Classes: Organizing additional classes to provide personalized attention, clarify doubts, and help slow learners understand concepts at their own pace.
2. Study Materials: Providing supplementary study resources, such as worksheets, visual aids, and practice exercises, to reinforce learning.
3. Relevant Books: Offering extra books or materials that simplify complex topics, allowing students to progress at a comfortable speed.
4. Motivational Classes: Conducting sessions to boost self-confidence, encourage persistence, and help slow learners stay motivated in their studies.

Action Taken for Advanced Learners:

1. Seminars: Organizing subject-specific seminars where advanced learners can explore in-depth topics, exchange ideas, and learn from experts.
2. Extra Reference Books: Providing access to advanced reference books and resources to deepen their understanding and stimulate further academic interest.

Report on Slow and Advanced Learners:

To enhance student performance, we categorized learners based on their final examination results. Students scoring below 50% were identified as slow learners, requiring additional academic support, while those scoring above 50% were classified as advanced learners, who benefit from further intellectual challenges.

For slow learners, the department implemented several support measures to improve their academic progress. Extra tutorial classes were conducted to reinforce key concepts and provide personalized guidance. Exam-related study materials, including simplified notes, important questions, and sample papers, were provided to help them prepare effectively. Motivational sessions were organized to boost their mental strength, confidence, and reduce exam-related stress. Additionally, doubt-clearing sessions were arranged to address their academic challenges and provide one-on-one assistance from faculty members.

To intellectually engage and challenge advanced learners, the department introduced various enhancement programs. Departmental seminars were organized, encouraging students to present and discuss academic topics, enhancing their research and presentation skills. They were also referred to advanced reference books to deepen their subject knowledge and broaden their perspectives. Furthermore, motivational talks were conducted to inspire them to set higher academic and career goals.

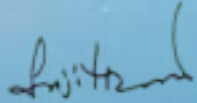

Overall, these initiatives aimed to create an inclusive and progressive academic environment, helping students at all levels reach their full potential. The positive impact of these efforts has been evident in improved performance, confidence, and engagement in learning. Moving forward, the department will continue to implement strategies that cater to individualized learning needs for holistic student development.

Brief introduce about Advance and Slow learners Monitoring System

Throughout the process of teaching and learning, teachers have to deal with different types of students; some are exceptionally intelligent and bright who understand, learn very fast and some are not as strong and some are quite weak to learn and grasp the instructions very slowly. Some students just need direction; some require hard work along with regular and mentoring. In order to assess a student's proceeding for graduation, teachers must take into account their individual learning attitudes and habits. This way, advanced learners won't be turned off and solubility in a class, particularly when they are starting their higher education and w learners won't lose interest.

Our Aims and Objectives

We the Department of Education of Vivekananda college, have initiated the academically 'slow& advanced learner' system. Our aim is to bring the best among the students.

Advanced learners are motivated to strive for higher goals and are encouraged for higher studies. They are provided with additional inputs by offering special class.

The slow learners are never considered as poor achievers as that can hurt their motivation and their interest. This can eventually make them more distressed and introvert in the class. Hence, we treat them like any other student in the class but they are provided extra attention for improvement and achievement. The Department and every individual teacher help slow learners by providing proper guidance and support to them.

We encourage advance learner to be supporters to the average and the slow learners as it will help to maintain the brotherhood among all students. We keep our advanced classes open to all and not limiting to advanced learners only.

Roles and Responsibilities of the subject Teacher

- Conduction of class test
- Preparation of marking scheme and assessment rubrics
- Evaluation answer sheets and preparation result reports
